CASE NO. C 10-00280 RS

STIPULATED PROTECTIVE ORDER

Judge: Hon. Hon. Richard Seeborg

18
19 1. PURPOSES AND LIMITATIONS

20 Disclosure and discovery activity in this action are likely to involve
21 production of confidential, proprietary, or private information for which special protection
22 from public disclosure and from use for any purpose other than prosecuting this litigation
23 may be warranted. Accordingly, the parties hereby stipulate to and petition the court to 24 enter the following Stipulated Protective Order. The parties acknowledge that this Order 25 does not confer blanket protections on all disclosures or responses to discovery and that the 26 protection it affords from public disclosure and use extends only to the limited information 27 or items that are entitled to confidential treatment under the applicable legal principles.
28 The parties further acknowledge, as set forth in Section 8, below, that this Stipulated

Protective Order does not entitle them to file confidential information under seal; Civil Local Rule 79-5 sets forth the procedures that must be followed and the standards that will be applied when a party seeks permission from the court to file material under seal.

2. DEFINITIONS

2.1 Challenging Party: a Party or Non-Party that challenges the designation of information or items under this Order.

2.2 "CONFIDENTIAL" Information or Items: information (regardless of how it is generated, stored or maintained) or tangible things that qualify for protection under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(c).

2.3 Counsel (without qualifier): Outside Counsel of Record and House Counsel (as well as their support staff).

2.4 Designating Party: a Party or Non-Party that designates information or items that it produces in disclosures or in responses to discovery as "CONFIDENTIAL."

2.5 Disclosure or Discovery Material: all items or information, regardless of the medium or manner in which it is generated, stored, or maintained (including, among other things, testimony, transcripts, and tangible things), that are produced or generated in disclosures or responses to discovery in this matter.

2.6 Expert: a person with specialized knowledge or experience in a matter pertinent to the litigation who has been retained by a Party or its counsel to serve as an expert witness or as a consultant in this action.

2.7 House Counsel: attorneys who are employees of a party to this action. House Counsel does not include Outside Counsel of Record or any other outside counsel.

2.8 Non-Party: any natural person, partnership, corporation, association, or other legal entity not named as a Party to this action.

2.9 Outside Counsel of Record: attorneys who are not employees of a party to this action but are retained to represent or advise a party to this action and

1 have appeared in this action on behalf of that party or are affiliated with a law firm which 2 has appeared on behalf of that party.

3 2.10 Party: any party to this action, including all of its officers,
4 directors, employees, consultants, retained experts, and Outside Counsel of Record (and 5 their support staffs).

6 2.11 Producing Party: a Party or Non-Party that produces Disclosure
7 or Discovery Material in this action.

8 2.12 Professional Vendors: persons or entities that provide litigation 9 support services (e.g., photocopying, videotaping, translating, preparing exhibits or 10 demonstrations, and organizing, storing, or retrieving data in any form or medium) and 11 their employees and subcontractors.

12 2.13 Protected Material: any Disclosure or Discovery Material that 13 is designated as "CONFIDENTIAL."

14 2.14 Receiving Party: a Party that receives Disclosure or Discovery
15 Material from a Producing Party.

16 3. SCOPE

17 The protections conferred by this Stipulation and Order cover not only 18 Protected Material (as defined above), but also (1) any information copied or extracted
19 from Protected Material; (2) all copies, excerpts, summaries, or compilations of Protected
20 Material; and (3) any testimony, conversations, or presentations by Parties or their Counsel
21 that might reveal Protected Material. However, the protections conferred by this 22 Stipulation and Order do not cover the following information: (a) any information that is in 23 the public domain at the time of disclosure to a Receiving Party or becomes part of the 24 public domain after its disclosure to a Receiving Party as a result of publication not 25 involving a violation of this Order, including becoming part of the public record through 26 trial or otherwise; and (b) any information known to the Receiving Party prior to the 27 disclosure or obtained by the Receiving Party after the disclosure from a source who 28 obtained the information lawfully and under no obligation of confidentiality to the Designating Party. Any use of Protected Material at trial shall be governed by a separate agreement or order.

4. DURATION

Even after final disposition of this litigation, the confidentiality obligations imposed by this Order shall remain in effect until a Designating Party agrees otherwise in writing or a court order otherwise directs. Final disposition shall be deemed to be the later of (1) dismissal of all claims and defenses in this action, with or without prejudice; and (2) final judgment herein after the completion and exhaustion of all appeals, rehearings, remands, trials, or reviews of this action, including the time limits for filing any motions or applications for extension of time pursuant to applicable law.

5. DESIGNATING PROTECTED MATERIAL

5.1 Exercise of Restraint and Care in Designating Material for Protection. Each Party or Non-Party that designates information or items for protection under this Order must take care to limit any such designation to specific material that qualifies under the appropriate standards. The Designating Party must designate for protection only those parts of material, documents, items, or oral or written communications that qualify – so that other portions of the material, documents, items, or communications for which protection is not warranted are not swept unjustifiably within the ambit of this Order.

Mass, indiscriminate, or routinized designations are prohibited. Designations that are shown to be clearly unjustified or that have been made for an improper purpose (e.g., to unnecessarily encumber or retard the case development process or to impose unnecessary expenses and burdens on other parties) expose the Designating Party to sanctions.

If it comes to a Designating Party's attention that information or items that it designated for protection do not qualify for protection, that Designating Party must promptly notify all other Parties that it is withdrawing the mistaken designation.

5.2 Manner and Timing of Designations. Except as otherwise provided in this Order (see, e.g., second paragraph of section 5.2(a) below), or as otherwise stipulated or ordered, Disclosure or Discovery Material that qualifies for protection under this Order must be clearly so designated before the material is disclosed or produced.

Designation in conformity with this Order requires:

a. for information in documentary form (e.g., paper or electronic documents, but excluding transcripts of depositions or other pretrial or trial proceedings), that the Producing Party affix the legend "CONFIDENTIAL" to each page that contains protected material. If only a portion or portions of the material on a page qualifies for protection, the Producing Party also must clearly identify the protected portion(s) (e.g., by making appropriate markings in the margins).

A Party or Non-Party that makes original documents or materials available for inspection need not designate them for protection until after the inspecting Party has indicated which material it would like copied and produced. During the inspection and before the designation, all of the material made available for inspection shall be deemed "CONFIDENTIAL." After the inspecting Party has identified the documents it wants copied and produced, the Producing Party must determine which documents, or portions thereof, qualify for protection under this Order. Then, before producing the specified documents, the Producing Party must affix the "CONFIDENTIAL" legend to each page that contains Protected Material. If only a portion or portions of the material on a page qualifies for protection, the Producing Party also must clearly identify the protected portion(s) (e.g., by making appropriate markings in the margins).

b. for testimony given in deposition or in other pretrial or trial proceedings, that the Designating Party identify on the record, before the close of the deposition, hearing, or other proceeding, all protected testimony.

c. for information produced in some form other than documentary and for any other tangible items, that the Producing Party affix in a prominent place on the exterior of the container or containers in which the information or item is stored the legend "CONFIDENTIAL." If only a portion or portions of the information or item warrant

1 protection, the Producing Party, to the extent practicable, shall identify the protected
2 portion(s).

3 5.3 Inadvertent Failures to Designate. If timely corrected, an 4 inadvertent failure to designate qualified information or items does not, standing alone,
5 waive the Designating Party's right to secure protection under this Order for such material.
6 Upon timely correction of a designation, the Receiving Party must make reasonable efforts
7 to assure that the material is treated in accordance with the provisions of this Order.

8 6. CHALLENGING CONFIDENTIALITY DESIGNATIONS

9 6.1 Timing of Challenges. Any Party or Non-Party may challenge
10 a designation of confidentiality at any time. Unless a prompt challenge to a Designating 11 Party's confidentiality designation is necessary to avoid foreseeable, substantial unfairness,
12 unnecessary economic burdens, or a significant disruption or delay of the litigation, a Party
13 does not waive its right to challenge a confidentiality designation by electing not to mount 14 a challenge promptly after the original designation is disclosed.

15 6.2 Meet and Confer. The Challenging Party shall initiate the 16 dispute resolution process by providing written notice of each designation it is challenging
17 and describing the basis for each challenge. To avoid ambiguity as to whether a challenge 18 has been made, the written notice must recite that the challenge to confidentiality is being 19 made in accordance with this specific paragraph of the Protective Order. The parties shall 20 attempt to resolve each challenge in good faith and must begin the process by conferring 21 directly (in voice to voice dialogue; other forms of communication are not sufficient)
22 within 14 days of the date of service of notice. In conferring, the Challenging Party must 23 explain the basis for its belief that the confidentiality designation was not proper and must 24 give the Designating Party an opportunity to review the designated material, to reconsider 25 the circumstances, and, if no change in designation is offered, to explain the basis for the 26 chosen designation. A Challenging Party may proceed to the next stage of the challenge 27 process only if it has engaged in this meet and confer process first or establishes that the 28 Designating Party is unwilling to participate in the meet and confer process in a timely

1 manner.

2 6.3 Judicial Intervention. If the Parties cannot resolve a challenge
3 without court intervention, the Designating Party shall file and serve a motion to retain 4 confidentiality under Civil Local Rule 7 (and in compliance with Civil Local Rule 79-5, if 5 applicable) within 21 days of the initial notice of challenge or within 14 days of the parties 6 agreeing that the meet and confer process will not resolve their dispute, whichever is 7 earlier. Each such motion must be accompanied by a competent declaration affirming that 8 the movant has complied with the meet and confer requirements imposed in the preceding
9 paragraph. Failure by the Designating Party to make such a motion including the required 10 declaration within 21 days (or 14 days, if applicable) shall automatically waive the 11 confidentiality designation for each challenged designation. In addition, the Challenging 12 Party may file a motion challenging a confidentiality designation at any time if there is 13 good cause for doing so, including a challenge to the designation of a deposition transcript
14 or any portions thereof. Any motion brought pursuant to this provision must be 15 accompanied by a competent declaration affirming that the movant has complied with the 16 meet and confer requirements imposed by the preceding paragraph.

17 The burden of persuasion in any such challenge proceeding shall be on the 18 Designating Party. Frivolous challenges, and those made for an improper purpose (e.g., to 19 harass or impose unnecessary expenses and burdens on other parties) may expose the 20 Challenging Party to sanctions. Unless the Designating Party has waived the 21 confidentiality designation by failing to file a motion to retain confidentiality as described 22 above, all parties shall continue to afford the material in question the level of protection to 23 which it is entitled under the Producing Party's designation until the court rules on the 24 challenge.

25 7. ACCESS TO AND USE OF PROTECTED MATERIAL

26 7.1 Basic Principles. A Receiving Party may use Protected
27 Material that is disclosed or produced by another Party or by a Non-Party in connection
28 with this case only for prosecuting, defending, or attempting to settle this litigation. Such Protected Material may be disclosed only to the categories of persons and under the conditions described in this Order. When the litigation has been terminated, a Receiving Party must comply with the provisions of section 13 below (FINAL DISPOSITION).

Protected Material must be stored and maintained by a Receiving Party at a location and in a secure manner that ensures that access is limited to the persons authorized under this Order.

7.2 Disclosure of "CONFIDENTIAL" Information or Items.

Unless otherwise ordered by the court or permitted in writing by the Designating Party, a Receiving Party may disclose any information or item designated "CONFIDENTIAL" only to:

- a. the Receiving Party's Outside Counsel of Record in this action, as well as employees of said Outside Counsel of Record to whom it is reasonably necessary to disclose the information for this litigation and who have signed the "Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound" that is attached hereto as Exhibit A;
- b. the officers, directors, and employees (including House Counsel) of the Receiving Party to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this litigation and who have signed the "Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound" (Exhibit A);
- c. Experts (as defined in this Order) of the Receiving Party to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this litigation and who have signed the "Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound" (Exhibit A);
- d. the court and its personnel;
- e. court reporters and their staff, professional jury or trial consultants, mock jurors, and Professional Vendors to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this litigation and who have signed the "Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound" (Exhibit A);
- f. during their depositions, witnesses in the action to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary and who have signed the "Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound" (Exhibit A), unless otherwise agreed by the Designating Party or ordered by the

1 court. Pages of transcribed deposition testimony or exhibits to depositions that reveal
 2 Protected Material must be separately bound by the court reporter and may not be
 3 disclosed to anyone except as permitted under this Stipulated Protective Order.

4 g. the author or recipient of a document containing the information or a 5 custodian or other person who otherwise possessed or knew the information.

6 8. PROTECTED MATERIAL SUBPOENAED OR ORDERED
 7 PRODUCED IN OTHER LITIGATION

8 If a Party is served with a subpoena or a court order issued in other litigation 9 that compels disclosure of any information or items designated in this action as 10 "CONFIDENTIAL," that Party must:

11 a. promptly notify in writing the Designating Party. Such notification
 12 shall include a copy of the subpoena or court order;

13 b. promptly notify in writing the party who caused the subpoena or order 14 to issue in the other litigation that some or all of the material covered by the subpoena or 15 order is subject to this Protective Order. Such notification shall include a copy of this 16 Stipulated Protective Order; and

17 c. cooperate with respect to all reasonable procedures sought to be 18 pursued by the Designating Party whose Protected Material may be affected.

19 If the Designating Party timely seeks a protective order, the Party served 20 with the subpoena or court order shall not produce any information designated in this 21 action as "CONFIDENTIAL" before a determination by the court from which the 22 subpoena or order issued, unless the Party has obtained the Designating Party's 23 permission. The Designating Party shall bear the burden and expense of seeking 24 protection in that court of its confidential material – and nothing in these provisions should 25 be construed as authorizing or encouraging a Receiving Party in this action to disobey a 26 lawful directive from another court.

27 9. A NON-PARTY'S PROTECTED MATERIAL SOUGHT TO BE 28 PRODUCED IN THIS LITIGATION

1 a. The terms of this Order are applicable to information produced by a
 2 Non-Party in this action and designated as "CONFIDENTIAL." Such information
 3 produced by Non-Parties in connection with this litigation is protected by the remedies and 4 relief provided by this Order. Nothing in these provisions should be construed as 5 prohibiting a Non-Party from seeking additional protections.

6 b. In the event that a Party is required, by a valid discovery request, to 7 produce a Non-Party's confidential information in its possession, and the Party is subject
 8 to an agreement with the Non-Party not to produce the Non-Party's confidential
 9 information, then the Party shall:

10 (1) promptly notify in writing the Requesting Party and the Non-
 11 Party that some or all of the information requested is subject to a confidentiality agreement
 12 with a Non-Party;

13 (2) promptly provide the Non-Party with a copy of the Stipulated
 14 Protective Order in this litigation, the relevant discovery request(s), and a reasonably 15 specific description of the information requested; and

16 (3) make the information requested available for inspection by the 17 Non-Party.

18 c. If the Non-Party fails to object or seek a protective order from this 19 court within 14 days of receiving the notice and accompanying information, the Receiving
 20 Party may produce the Non-Party's confidential information responsive to the discovery
 21 request. If the Non-Party timely seeks a protective order, the Receiving Party shall not 22 produce any information in its possession or control that is subject to the confidentiality
 23 agreement with the Non-Party before a determination by the court.¹

24 10. UNAUTHORIZED DISCLOSURE OF PROTECTED MATERIAL
 25 _____

26 ¹ The purpose of this provision is to alert the interested parties to the existence of 27 confidentiality rights of a Non-Party and to afford the Non-Party an opportunity to protect 28 its confidentiality interests in this court.

2 If a Receiving Party learns that, by inadvertence or otherwise, it has 3 disclosed Protected Material to any person or in any circumstance not authorized under 4 this Stipulated Protective Order, the Receiving Party must immediately (a) notify in 5 writing the Designating Party of the unauthorized disclosures, (b) use its best efforts to 6 retrieve all unauthorized copies of the Protected Material, (c) inform the person or persons
7 to whom unauthorized disclosures were made of all the terms of this Order, and (d) request
8 such person or persons to execute the "Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound"
9 that is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

10 11. INADVERTENT PRODUCTION OF PRIVILEGED OR 11 OTHERWISE PROTECTED MATERIAL

12 When a Producing Party gives notice to Receiving Parties that certain 13 inadvertently produced material is subject to a claim of privilege or other protection, the 14 obligations of the Receiving Parties are those set forth in Federal Rule of Civil Procedure
15 26(b)(5)(B). This provision is not intended to modify whatever procedure may be 16 established in an e-discovery order that provides for production without prior privilege
17 review. Pursuant to Federal Rule of Evidence 502(d) and (e), insofar as the parties reach 18 an agreement on the effect of disclosure of a communication or information covered by the 19 attorney-client privilege or work product protection, the parties may incorporate their 20 agreement in the stipulated protective order submitted to the court.

21 12. MISCELLANEOUS

22 12.1 Right to Further Relief. Nothing in this Order abridges the 23 right of any person to seek its modification by the court in the future.

24 12.2 Right to Assert Other Objections. By stipulating to the entry of 25 this Protective Order no Party waives any right it otherwise would have to object to 26 disclosing or producing any information or item on any ground not addressed in this 27 Stipulated Protective Order. Similarly, no Party waives any right to object on any ground
28 to use in evidence of any of the material covered by this Protective Order.

12.3 Filing Protected Material. Without written permission from the Designating Party or a court order secured after appropriate notice to all interested persons, a Party may not file in the public record in this action any Protected Material. A Party that seeks to file under seal any Protected Material must comply with Civil Local Rule 79-5. Protected Material may only be filed under seal pursuant to a court order authorizing the sealing of the specific Protected Material at issue. Pursuant to Civil Local Rule 79-5, a sealing order will issue only a request establishing that the Protected Material at issue is privileged, protectable as a trade secret, or otherwise entitled to protection under the law. If a Receiving Party's request to file Protected Material under seal pursuant to Civil Local Rule 79-5(d) is denied by the court, then the Receiving Party may file the information in the public record pursuant to Civil Local Rule 79-5(e) unless otherwise instructed by the Court.

13. FINAL DISPOSITION. Within 60 days after the final disposition of this action, as defined in paragraph 4, each Receiving Party must return all Protected Material to the Producing Party or destroy such material. As used in this subdivision, "all Protected Material" includes all copies, abstracts, compilations, summaries, and any other format reproducing or capturing any of the Protected Material. Whether the Protected Material is returned or destroyed, the Receiving Party must submit a written certification to the Producing Party (and, if not the same person or entity, to the Designating Party) by the 60 day deadline that (1) identifies (by category, where appropriate) all the Protected Material that was returned or destroyed and (2) affirms that the Receiving Party has not retained any copies, abstracts, compilations, summaries or any other format reproducing or capturing any of the Protected Material. Notwithstanding this provision, Counsel are entitled to retain an archival copy of all pleadings, motion papers, trial, deposition, and hearing transcripts, legal memoranda, correspondence, deposition and trial exhibits, expert reports, attorney work product, and consultant and expert work product, even if such materials contain Protected Material. Any such archival copies that contain or constitute Protected Material remain subject to this Protective Order as set forth in Section 4
